

STORE PERSON

Sherriff Electrical is an Australian Family owned Electrical Wholesaler. Regarded as one of the leading independents, our people strive to provide the highest level of customer service possible. We are currently on the hunt for a full-time Store Person who is looking to make their mark in our branch in [BRANCH NAME].

The ideal applicant for this role would be someone with a great work ethic, who can thrive and learn within an experienced team, while also sharing their own education and experience.

Duties of this role include; but are not limited to:-

- Picking & Packing of store orders
- Manage the Loading & unloading of all incoming and outgoing goods of store
- Quality assurance and accuracy of receipting and dispatching goods
- Regular cyclical stock takes
- Working with the sales team to achieve daily branch requirements
- Local multi-drop deliveries

To be successful for the role you must have:

- Current Forklift licence is essential.
- Current Australian drivers licence.
- Previous experience in a warehousing or store person role.
- Physically fit and able to lift and cut cables etc.
- Able to show initiative and work unsupervised.
- Able to use logic and think laterally to problem solve.
- Basic computer literacy required.
- High attention to detail.
- Excellent Customer Service.

If you feel you're the person for this role, please click APPLY now and submit your resume & cover letter!

We would like to take this opportunity to thank all applicants for their efforts in applying. However, only those that meet the criteria will be contacted.